

Then, he decided he liked working with young horses, which are called yearlings. So he became an auctioneer at one of Keeneland's horse sales!